

Whistling in Glory

A tribute to Wyoming County native, Lonnie Lewis Lusk

We selfishly prayed you wouldn't leave
Still, Jesus called you home to Glory
Some moments it has been hard to believe
But, your life was truly an exceptional story

The love you shared with others
Your laugh, friendly smile, and kind heart
All those around you were loved as a brother
With all these things we will never part

Memories of mining were told to all who would listen
Painfully you were dealt a hand you could not hold
Talk of family made your blue eyes glisten
Proudly sacrificing your life to mine that black gold

Today we say, "Goodbye", but only for a short while
Soon we will meet in the Glory Land
We'll see that Lonnie smile
Hand in hand we will whistle as we walk the streets of gold

Knowing your faith in the Lord was strong
Witnessing and touching the lives of so many others
In Heaven you are now healed and nothing is wrong
A good son, friend, father, and brother
There will never be another
